- Requirements and General Description:

An online store where the customer can add categories and pages for these categories, display all their products on the home page, and each product consists of (product images, name, price, type, description). Additionally, there is a "Contact Us" page.

Website Pages

Website pages	R
Home	1
Shop	2
A page to display the products of a single category.	3
Product Page	4
Contact us	5

Requirements

Requirements	Page
A slider at the top of the page - Display of categories - Display of products in a slider - A banner that directs to the contact page.	Home
Display all products - Search for products.	Shop
Display the products of a single category - Search for products.	A page to display the products of a single category.
Product name - Product images - Category - Price - Description.	Product Page
A section about the company or site - Contact information (phone number only) - A contact form.	Contact us